- A tennis masterclass with Judy at your club, school or local park

Dear Tennis Friends,

I'm writing to introduce you to The Judy Murray Foundation and to ask if you would consider helping us in our fundraising efforts at this year's Kiltwalks across Scotland. The motto of the Foundation is: Everyone for Tennis, Everywhere for Tennis and our goal is to take tennis into rural and deprived areas of Scotland.

The Foundation launched last year and our strategy is to build workforces in local communities by training youth and community workers, teachers, parents, students, club members, coaches of other sports and volunteers to deliver starter coaching and competitions, in whatever space they have available. Already we are working with communities in Inverclyde, rural Aberdeenshire and the East End of Glasgow. More people delivering tennis means more opportunities for others to play tennis.

The Kiltwalk is a fantastic way to raise funds for charity and an event that everyone can take part in, as you can choose to walk 6, 15 or 23 miles. One of the amazing things about the Kiltwalk is that The Tom Hunter Foundation adds 40 % onto every fundraiser's final total. So every £100 you raise becomes £140 for The Judy Murray Foundation. Last year we raised £8,000 at the Edinburgh Kiltwalk, which is enough to cover the direct costs of 1 project for one year.

So.....What can you do next?

- Promote the leaflet attached
- Register to walk at one (or more!) of the 4 Kiltwalks available all over Scotland: Glasgow 28 April, Aberdeen 2 June, Dundee - St Andrews 18 August, Edinburgh 15 September 2019 - <https://www.thekiltwalk.co.uk>
- Make sure you choose The Judy Murray Foundation when prompted to choose a charity and encourage your friends and family to sponsor you
- Why not "create a team" and invite fellow tennis players and friends to join you on the journey
- All participants who raise over £100 will receive a FREE Judy Murray Foundation T-shirt to wear during the walk

I hope I can persuade you to form a group from your tennis club and "walk the walk". It's a real fun day out and your support would really help us to grow tennis in Scotland! #TeamJMF
